BRACKEN GRAND JURY REFUSES TO INDICT MAYSVILLE MAN

"Kirk" Stickley Is Released By Bracken County Grand Jury When Serious Charges Made Against Him Are Unwarranted.

Lycourges J. Stickley, local painter and paper hanger, arrived in Maysville Tuesday evening from Brooksville where he had been confined in the Bracken county jail for the past two months awaiting a hearing before the grand jury of that county on a most serious charge supposed to have been made by a little girl.

After a thorough investigation of the charge against the Maysville man, the Bracken county grand jury refused to bring an indictment against him and dismissed him. He says, however, that there was no foundation in fact for the charges against Mr. Stickley, who always heretofore has been a most exemplary gentleman in his home city.

At the time of the charge being made, Mr. Stickley's many friends refused to believe him guilty of so serious a charge and the only thing done to shake their faith in him was his leaving this section. He says, however, that he was frightened by reports brought to him of the feeling against him in Bracken county. He says he never at any time feared a trial on the charge and would have surrendered himself for trial but for the rumors he received from Bracken county.

Mr. Stickley says he was treated in a splendid manner by the Bracken county authorities during his incarceration.

Armistice Day should be a day of thanksgiving. Celebrate! Why, of course—at the Washington Consolidated School. The Boys' Band will be there by 10 o'clock, so don't be late. Dinner will be served from 11:30 to 1:30. Come and bring your friends.

FAIR BOOSTERS ARE WELL RECEIVED ON TRIP

Business Men Who Visited Nearby Sections on Tuesday Predict Record Breaking Crowds for 1920 Fair.

The members of the various booster teams who visited all adjoining sections Tuesday by automobile in the interest of the Corn and Tobacco Fair, bring back glowing reports of the manner in which they were received at every stop along their trip. They predict a great number of visitors to the fair from all adjoining sections and report a splendid feeling for Maysville and the Maysville tobacco market.

Realizing that the Maysville Corn and Tobacco Fair is for the benefit of all tobacco growers in this entire section of the country, everyone is boosting the fair.

Arrangements were made on this trip for the advertising of the fair in all nearby county seat newspapers and a large amount of advertising matter was posted all along all of the routes so that the fair is very extensively advertised.

I am going to the Armistice Day dinner at the Washington Consolidated School. Aren't you? Why not make a day of it and see the comedy—"Mrs. Tubbs of Shantytown" presented at 7:30! Oysters and other good things will be served before and after the play, so eat and be merry. I intend to. Don't miss this play for it insures the laughter that is good for us.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10.—The Right Rev. Lewis W. Burton, Lexington, Bishop of the Lexington Diocese, Episcopal Church, was 68 years old Tuesday and celebration of the event was made a special feature of "Bishop's Day," observed by churchmen of Northern Kentucky at Covington, where Bishop Burton was the guest of honor. A luncheon and addresses fettering the Bishop and an address by him to women of the diocese were on the program.

AMERICAN LEGION ARRANGES ALL PLANS FOR CELEBRATION

Parade and Community Meeting at Beechwood Park to Mark Celebration of the Anniversary of Armistice Day.

Officers of the Leslie H. Arthur Post American Legion announce all arrangements for the celebration of Armistice Day on Thursday now completed and these arrangements promise one of the greatest celebrations held in Maysville in a long time.

Although all of Thursday is considered a city holiday as well as a state and national holiday, only the afternoon and evening will be celebrated in Maysville.

The big celebration will begin promptly at 1 o'clock with a great parade of City and County officials, ex-service men of all wars, fraternity men and workmen headed by our famous Boys' Band. This parade will move East on Second from Sutton to Market; south on Market to Third; east on Third to Bridge; north on Bridge to Second; east on Second to Beechwood Park where the balance of the afternoon will be spent in a Community meeting. A concert will be given at the park by the Boys' Band and Community singing will be led by Miss Russell, soloist of the Boys' Band.

The address of the day will be made at Beechwood after the arrival of the parade by Hon. Thomas L. Pogue, former City Attorney of Cincinnati, and a native Maysvillian. Barbecued beef will be furnished free to those attending the big meeting at Beechwood. The evening will bring on a great military ball at Beechwood Park Casino which will be thrown open to the public and which promises to be one of the biggest dances of the entire year.

Hundreds of people are expected to spend the day in Maysville from the country and the adjoining counties, and the people of Maysville are called upon to decorate their homes and business houses with the American colors. The most of the local stores will close during the afternoon and practically all business will be temporarily suspended in honor of the soldiers of the great World War.

Armistice Day at Pastime.

Manager Triebel has booked a very special feature for Armistice Day. The attraction is the great story of the North Canadian woods "Under Northern Light," featuring such famous stars as Virginia Faire, William Buckley and Leonard Clapham. The scenes of the story are laid in the Canadian wilds and the characters are the folks who live on the border of civilization. A story of love and duty and the Royal Northwest mounted police.

Lexington Man Slays Neighbor With Shotgun Charging He Had Violated His Home.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10. — Jealous because of attentions he thought were being received by his wife, Bert Tudor, 30 years old, of 715 West Short street, Tuesday shot and killed instantly Robert Haney, 32 years old, in front of the Tudor home.

The contents of a shotgun were discharged into Haney's left breast, striking his heart and causing instant death. Tudor then took the gun back into his house, walked three blocks, met two policemen and surrendered. He is in the county jail tonight, charged with murder.

After the killing Mrs. E. Haney, mother of the victim, attacked with a bayonet Mrs. Bettie Tudor, wife of the slayer. Mrs. Tudor was cut severely above the eye.

Mrs. Tudor said her husband had no cause to shoot Haney, and that he shot him down like a dog. She said her husband had introduced her to Haney and that when they went driving in their car, Haney was the only one who could "crank" the machine.

She said that her relations with Haney were only such as exist between friends.
